

Monday morning

Dear Friend,

It was Wednesday at Woodruff Park & my old friend who directs the operations & development of the Park who's seen me preach in the Park for years said as we discussed the Park's improvements, "You believe things can get better too".

She was right. I believe it but don't see much of it. One of the most discouraging aspects of ministry is not seeing much improvement. But knowing the power of God's word proclaimed and looking into the eyes of the thousands of GSU students who pass through the Park on the way to their classes I know I can't quit.

The power that faces the students, and everyone else who passes by at Woodruff Park and all the sporting events, is greater than they know. Life with its demands and the gravity of sin whisks them away from the hope of the Gospel like a branch in a river.

At the human level that's why the Lord sent me into the highways and hedges to proclaim the Gospel of our great God's free grace through faith in His Son Jesus Christ. I've wondered often why me, why full-time, but the above scenario explains it.

The challenges are great but the laborers are few. For sometime the Lord has given me the desire and plans to be a catalyst to raise up more laborers. After about 18 months we are ready to do just that. Will you help me so that students like those at GSU can hear the Gospel more and more?

The plan consists of two general parts: first, the recruitment and funding of initially twenty preachers across the country who can go into the highways and hedges full-time.

Second, the aggressive recruitment of preachers to participate in our events at the Super Bowl, etc.

The following page has a more detailed breakdown of how each part works and what is needed. Will you pray about joining me on this mission? If so please review the next page and pray about which part you can joyfully and generously participate in.

Life is a vapor. Before we know it we'll be gone. Will you join me to redeem our remaining days so that the souls of students and sports fans across the country can hear of the precious hope of the Gospel?

Grace & peace,

Bill
